Librarian's Update:

1) Buffy discussed staffing needs. When hired as librarian, NCW agreed to add a 21 hour (week) part time position. This has not been done. Buffy prepared a detailed memo to NCW as to why this staffing is important to the operation and programming of the branch. Buffy requested the FORL board support her in this request. Upon a motion duly made and seconded, and unanimously approved, FORL will send a letter to NCW supporting Buffy's request. Diane and Katherine are authorized to prepare the letter and send it via email to NCW.

- 2) Buffy asked for volunteers to help with the end of summer reading party at the fairgrounds on Thursday, August 14 from 10am-2pm.
- 3) Buffy is working with the City and Job Corps for outside benches.

Building Subcommittee Update:

Emily reported on the following:

- 1) The committee is working with a design contractor, which is paid for by the Department of Commerce.
- 2) Emily has a meeting scheduled with Hunter Able of Williams Kastner to inform him of our current position regarding legal needs and termination of the engagement with Williams Kastner. The letter approved by the board at the June meeting will be delivered at that time.

Refer to the building committee minutes for more details.
